8. Applicant Declaration

I affirm that, if eligible, I will use the funds I receive by EIUC solely for expenses related to the attendance of the E.MA Programme. I understand that only a very limited number of students might benefit from modest financial support in the form of a partial contribution towards living expenses and/or a full or partial tuition waiver. I understand that if I receive such financial support I commit:

- to offer up to 35 hours of availability to give support to EIUC/E.MA administrative, academic, and logistics activities during the E.MA first semester. The allocation of time will be decided by the EIUC Secretary General and the E.MA Programme Director;
- to use the bursary to pay my monthly rent and utilities expenses on time during the E.MA academic year. As far as accommodation for the first semester in Venice is concerned, if I choose to use the EIUC housing facilitation service, I agree to share a double room in an apartment with other E.MA students, chosen among the best available options.

I understand that the EIUC bursary will not cover all of my housing and living expenses during the course of the academic year. I have considered my overall financial situation and I state that I have adequate personal (additional) funds for the entire year. I will make sure that I will dispose of sufficient funds upon arrival in Venice to cover initial expenses. I will use financial assistance solely to support my study in view of demonstrating academic excellence and achievement.

I certify that the information I have provided is true and accurate. I shall notify the EIUC Financial Department if I receive outside financial aid (in any form and at any moment) for the academic year 2011/2012 not listed in this application and understand that the addition of an outside financial sponsorship may affect my financial aid package provided by the EIUC.
